TOM COLE HANGED TODAY

Judge Black, of Harboursville, Will Likely Succeed Judge Tinsley.

MR. SHAW IS VERY SICK

ANOTHER TRAIN ROBBERY. Macon, Ga., April 26.—Two men accented themselves on a Central of Georgia passenger train last night, and in midnight entered the express car and overpowered and bound the messenger. They secured $4,000. They refused to take a bag of $1,000 in silver.

THESE COST $10,000. Anacostia, Mont., April 26.—Burglars carried away the safe in the Anacostia saloon last night, blew it open and secured $10,000 in cash. They turned the loose back and had the wrecked safe left in the center of the town.

HANGING AT ELINTON. Clinton, Ky., April 26.—Thomas Cole, colored, was hanged in the jail yard here this afternoon. There was an immense crowd outside the enclosure, and about 200 inside. Cole died game, keeping up his bravado to the last. The crime he expiated was the murder of his former mistress, Emma McCorty.

JUDGE BLACK'S LUCK. Frankfort, April 26.—Gov. Beckham will appoint Judge Black, of Harboursville, to succeed Circuit Judge Tinsley, appointed United States district attorney.

SHAW IS SICK. Berlin, April 26.—A dispatch states that the Shaw of Persia is critically ill.

ANOTHER REVOLT. TION ENDED. Bogota, Columbia, April 26.—The government accepts peace terms of Gen. Uribe, leader of the insurgents, and the revolution ends.

BUILDING AND LOAN CO. ASSIGNS. Henderson, April 26.—The Henderson Building and Loan association, the oldest in the state, has assigned. There is no schedule of assets and liabilities filed, but it probably owes $17,000.

WRECKED BY HYMNATE. Brighton, Mich., April 26.—The Mackay bank was wrecked by dynamite at daylight this morning and robbed of $1,000.

NOTE DEPENDABLE HANGED. Clayton, N. M., April 26.—"Black Jack" Kitchman, the train robber and murderer, was hanged here this afternoon. Before the execution he wrote a letter to President McKinley saying that four men in the Santa Fe jail charged with train robbery are innocent and asks that they be released.

BARN BURNED. MR. H. W. ROTTGERING'S BURNED. TAINS A LOSS OF SEVERAL HUNDRED DOLLARS. Mr. H. W. Rottgering's barn in Rowlandtown was destroyed by fire shortly after noon today.

The blaze is believed to have originated in the boiler room, but the origin is not certain.

The structure was full of hay and farming implements, which were destroyed. All the cattle and horses, however, were saved.

Mr. Rottgering's residence was damaged some, but not much.

The loss will be several hundred dollars, partially covered by insurance.

VERY ILL. MR. CHAS. M. LEAKE'S CONDITION IS DANGEROUS.

The many friends of Mr. Charles M. Leake will regret to hear that his condition today is serious. He has not been in good health for the past two or three years, but he recently had an attack of grippe and inflammatory rheumatism, and yesterday was overcome by vertigo, and has since been unconscious much of the time.

Yesterday afternoon his condition is regarded as precarious. Mr. Leake is one of Paducah's most popular citizens, and his many friends will wish him a speedy recovery.

THE ELKS

Two Maids of Honor Have Been Appointed for the Flower Parade.

MISS COX AND QUANTE

A Big Delegation Will Come from Paragould, Ark., to the Carnival.

WORK FINISHED IN ALL QUARTERS

The flower parade committee of the Elks carnival are receiving encouraging reports from all quarters. Many have signified their intention of entering the contest, in which only private vehicles will be allowed to compete. No entrance fee is charged. The competition is open to all and free for all.

Miss Emma Quante, one of the most beautiful and attractive young ladies of Metropolis, has accepted the invitation to be one of the maids of honor for the flower parade. Miss Quante is well and favorably known in Paducah, and is the first of the maids of honor to be appointed.

Miss Maggie Cox, a popular young lady of Fulton, has been appointed one of the maids of honor for the flower parade. She will doubtless accept. Several other cities are yet to be heard from.

The Red Men of Paragould, Ark., are coming to the carnival in a body. They will probably be several hundred strong, and will arrive Thursday of carnival week.

Mr. S. A. Fowler is arranging for a big naval parade, which will probably take place on the 18th. It will surpass anything ever seen on the Ohio.

The "Two Joes," Joe Blum and Joe Everitt, have returned from a bill posting expedition to Dyersburg and way stations. They report that everything is coming to the carnival.

The ticket takers and "spotters" are to be appointed next week.

Messrs. Joe Blum and Henry Nunn left today for Mound City and Cairo to look loose a little more advertising matter.

Nearly all the concessions have been let. The booth work is progressing rapidly and the work on Court street will soon be finished.

"SQUIRE" PATTON

THE FORMER CONSTABLE WILL QUALIFY AS SOON AS HIS

Commission Comes—Mr. Jesse Young Relinquishes Any Claim to the Position.

The trouble over the appointment of a magistrate in the Seventh district to succeed the late Justice J. H. Little has been amicably settled. As stated yesterday Mr. Jesse S. Young was appointed by County Judge Tully and his bond was accepted.

Mr. Alex. Patton, the constable, was appointed by Governor Beckham who issued him a commission.

Mr. Young stated to a reporter this morning that he would make no effort to cause any complications of any kind. "I consider the governor's action final," he said, "and Mr. Patton will qualify."

Mr. Patton stated that he would qualify as soon as Deputy Sheriff this Rogers arrives with his commission. He will have his office at Fourth and Court, in Justice Little's old office.

UNDERWOOD ACQUITTED.

HE CUT JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE IN SELF DEFENSE.

Attorney Kahn is Fined for Contempt but the fine is Set Aside.

The only exciting feature of Judge Sanders' court this morning was Attorney Oscar Kahn's rebellion against the will of the court.

Attorney Kahn was acting county attorney for Attorney Graves, in the malicious cutting case against Thomas M. Underwood.

The defense desired to introduce Dr. Coyle before the defendant testified, in order to let the doctor get away to his practice.

Attorney Kahn objected to any departure from the code of practice, and insisted that the defendant be introduced first.

Judge Sanders overruled the objection.

Attorney Kahn said he would withdraw from the case, and picked up his hat to leave. The court informed him that he would have to proceed with the case or be fined for contempt and sent to jail. The attorney replied that he'd go to jail.

A fine of $3 was assessed for contempt as a matter, and the friends of the attorney expected to see him escorted below to the domain presided over by Lockup Keeper McNeice, but Attorney Kahn very considerably resumed the case. He did it with such grace that the court set aside the fine and the attorney was saved $3.

The Underwood case showed that Mr. Thomas M. Underwood and his neighbor, Mr. John C. Breckinridge, had a difficulty at Third and Jackson about two weeks ago, and after Mr. Breckinridge had struck Mr. Underwood several times and broken his nose, the latter cut him in the left side.

The case was dismissed by Judge Sanders.

CIRCUIT COURT.

TWO SUITS FOR DIVORCE FILED THIS AFTERNOON.

Mack Smith filed a divorce suit against his wife, Lena Smith, this morning in the circuit court. He gives abandonment as his grounds.

Stacie Harris, the young woman who recently attempted suicide, filed a suit for $500 alimony or maintenance against her husband, William S. Harris, in the circuit court this morning. She was abandoned by her husband some time ago but has not been separated long enough to obtain a divorce.

In the case of A. Rosenkranz, trustee for H. H. Dahlman & Co. against F. D. Rudolph, administrator of the estate of John C. Smith, a judgment of $191.36 was rendered in favor of the plaintiff and a piano belonging to the estate of John C. Smith, ordered sold to settle the judgment.

Maggie Giddard was granted a divorce from her husband, George Giddard, the sign painter. She was restored to her maiden name of Maggie Bousage.

MR. GEO. L. SAFFAHRMAN.

Today's Memphis Commercial Appeal says: George L. Saffahrman, whose interment took place in Elmwood on the 24th, was born in this city, December, 10, 1841. At the beginning of the civil war he enlisted in the old Bluff City Grays and served throughout that struggle, participating in many battles, particularly those of Shiloh and Corinth. He was married October 3, 1865, to Miss Annie Coedlidge, who, together with their son, Capt. George C. Saffahrman, United States army, and their daughter, Miss Caroline Saffahrman, survive to mourn his death. Several years ago his health began to fail and he spent the last three years of his life in the west, seeking a renewal of strength. His death occurred at San Bernardino, Cal., April 18, with his wife and daughter, who had been hastily summoned to his bedside, comforting him in his last hours. Another wearer of the gray has thus joined the great majority.

MARRIED IN ST. LOUIS

MISS FARROW AND MR. HALE SURPRISE THEIR MANY FRIENDS.

Mr. C. S. Farrow today received news of the marriage at St. Louis of his sister, Miss Emma Farrow, of Metropolis, to Mr. Chas. L. Hale, of St. Louis, manager of the Harris and Cud company at Metropolis. The wedding took place at St. Louis day before yesterday. The bride was one of the most attractive young ladies of Metropolis.

Miss Farrow was quite well known in Paducah and Mayfield, where she had often visited. Her marriage was quite a surprise to her friends, who received the first news of it today. She was visiting in St. Louis when they decided to marry.

TAKEN TO HOPKINSVILLE.

GRAVES COUNTY WOMAN 'AD JUDGED INSANE AND BROUGHT THROUGH PADUCAH.

Messrs. M. W. and I. W. Franklin, of Graves county, near Wingo, passed through the city this morning en route to Hopkinsville to place the wife of the latter in the asylum. The Messrs. Franklin are twin brothers, over 50 years of age and can hardly be identified apart even by their most intimate friends. Mrs. Franklin is not violent. Her pleadings to be taken home were very touching and many passengers had to change cars as they could not bear to leave her.

SLAUGHTER FINISHED. The steamer Dick Fowler's shift was completed yesterday and shipped from Buffalo, N. Y., today. It will probably arrive here tomorrow.

Rev. W. S. Gilbert, who claims to be a divine brother, is holding a meeting at Third and Broadway. He never he could be pastor of any church in the United States if he wanted to. But naturally he prefers street corner engagements.

Rev. Gilbert says he is going to have things going his way in Paducah before very long. The properties of his show consist of a small platform, a chair, a bible and another book or two.

A DAILY THOUGHT.

However much one desires may be for ease, our real happiness is in activity.—Whipple.

THE SUNDAY CHAT.

The next issue of the Sunday Chat will contain a wealth of good things for local people and should go into every home in the city.

The success of the paper has been one of the most surprising, as well as pleasing, things with which The Sun management has had connection. The circulation has grown, and is growing, at a great rate and has far surpassed all expectations.

An article of interest—of especial interest to the labor men, will be one of the many good features the publishers offer the patrons in the next issue. It is an article on union labor and was written for The Sunday Chat by one of the most enthusiastic and best posted union men in the city. The other special features will be up to The Chat standard. The social news, the literary news, the picture features, all will be splendid. Dr. H. G. Ewelow, too, has written an article for The Chat that will be appreciated by every one in the city. It is his impressions of Paducah, our pride. If you are not a subscriber you must send in your name at once. You cannot afford to miss Sunday's issue.

The local organs that have felt so mortally offended because former Gov. Mott of Indiana refused to turn over W. S. Taylor over to the Democrats of Kentucky, have had little to say about the action of Gov. McMillin, of Tennessee, who refused to give up an alleged murderer for extradition from Texas. There is, of course some difference in the cases, but the principle of a governor exercising his discretion is the same. Says the Lexington Herald on the subject: We are confident that Gov. McMillin would not refuse such a demand unless he believed it ought to be granted. We are equally confident that Gov. McMillin would not refuse such a demand unless he believed it ought to be refused; and this illustrates the necessity for gubernatorial discretion. The constitution provides that fugitives from justice shall be surrendered upon demand of the governor of the state from which he is a fugitive to the governor of the state in which he is found; but neither governor is compelled in act except according to his official discretion. Every governor must exercise his official discretion before he will issue such a demand. The governor upon whom the demand is made must exercise his official discretion before he decides what answer he will make to the demand. It is a most delicate and disagreeable duty for a governor to issue a warrant of arrest to extradite a fellow citizen and transport him beyond the territorial jurisdiction of his own state, to be tried in a distant state before a strange tribunal; and he ought not to do it unless he feels himself bound so to act. On the other hand, if he does not so feel he can not refuse. And this has been the recognized construction of this constitutional provision since the formation of the constitution, and will continue to be so long as states are sovereign and independent and the governors are fit to be chief magistrates.

It is probable that McCracken county will soon have free rural delivery. One of the conditions conducive to free rural delivery is good roads. Routes are established on the strength of petitions signed by the heads of families in the districts traversed but there must be good roads. There seems to be a demand for the system in the surrounding counties. Next July the rural free delivery will be enlarged by the establishment of new routes and the extension of old ones, and for this purpose congress has appropriated $3,500,000. No route can be less than twenty miles in length and not less than one hundred families can be served. Each resident must provide a box of accepted design near the highway, and the box will be duly protected by federal statute. Registered or special delivery letters or pension remittances are delivered. No petition for the free delivery is considered unless the roads are in good condition, hence the system has done much and will do more, towards the improvement of public roads.

Two magistrates have been appointed to fill the vacancy in the Seventh district occasioned by the death of Justice J. H. Little. County Judge J. C. Tally appointed Mr. Jesse S. Young under the following statute enacted in 1891: No Justice of the peace who has been appointed to fill the vacancy in the office of Justice of the peace shall be filled by the appointment of the county court, temporary, until the successor shall have been elected, as provided in section 1592 of this article, and shall have qualified; and a writ of election shall be issued as provided in the preceding section. Gov. Beckham appointed Mr. Alex. Patton, the constable, under a statute passed February 10, 1894, amending the statute above and providing that the governor shall fill all such vacancies by appointment. In the last issue of the court of appeals decisions, April 15, is a decision in a case exactly similar, styled Daugherty, Judge, against Arnold, from Elkton. Governor Bradley appointed a magistrate to fill a vacancy, and the appointment was contested. The court decided that only the governor has the power to fill such vacancies. Hence the appointment of Mr. Patton will stand.

It is believed that Princeton, Ky., has a fire bug, which moves the editor of the Chronicle to remark: "If there is a biped dog, or a vicious monster, a canny devil in human form in the city responsible for the fires we have had here of late years, he, it or they ought to be found and roasted for three hours over a slow fire as could be controlled in a coal oil tank. You may talk of potato bugs, chinch bugs, bed-bugs, silver bugs, gold bugs, and humpbugs, but the most consummately damnable bug ever yet afflicting a community is the fire bug. Let it be exterminated, by its own brands cremated!"

The fire bug, when he sees that, will doubtless feel sufficiently roasted without the coal oil fire and other luxurious tortures suggested.

It seems that some of the anti-temperance as well as the temperance people can do a little smashing when things don't go to suit them. As a shining example is the concern of the McMillin Citizen, at Athens, Tenn., which has been reduced to a state of piety by an indignant anti-temperance element which became enraged at some of the editorial utterances of the paper. Mrs. Nation should look to her laurels.

The Elks carnival will be all that is expected. Those who have time should visit the proposed site and see how the booths are rapidly appearing, and the vast quantity of lumber that is being used. Bill posters have been out in every direction, and without a doubt the crowd will be the greatest ever witnessed here.

WHEN PADUCAH JOINS.

A Writer in the Lexington Herald Gives Some Interesting Points About Second Class Cities.

Mr. R. J. Mahony, in yesterday's Lexington Herald, writes of the proposed advancement of Paducah into the second class. He says: "The census shows 21,433, but Mayor Lang states that he had authoritative information that the census judge would not make the transfer of Paducah to the second class, and the movement will be abandoned until next January, when the legislature meets."

The intelligence conveyed in this dispatch has been expected by those who have been watching the growth of Western Kentucky, and the probability of Paducah asking to be admitted to cities of the second class has been discussed by persons interested in municipal matters. When Paducah will find herself in municipal harness with another city, whose interests it will be difficult to reconcile with hers. The present charter of cities of the second class contains provisions much more suitable to Newport and Covington than to Lexington, whose growth demands changes in this charter, to which, it seems, it is almost impossible to obtain the agreement of the Ohio river cities, with which she is municipally bonded. The addition of Paducah to the list is feared will make things worse.

PADUCAH AND LEXINGTON.

But Paducah will have troubles of her own. She will be torn with dissensions when the question of municipal elections comes up. The trouble that arose over the election of mayor of Lexington, in 1893 and 1895, is likely to be reproduced in the capital of "The Purchase."

Under the constitution, Mayor H. L. Duncan was elected in 1893, supposedly with a term of four years. In 1891, the legislature amended the charter of cities of the second class, which provided for another election in 1893. In the bill as it was originally drawn, the election of mayor was set for 1897; but this was opposed by Senator John O. Hodges, who insisted that there should be an election in 1895, when the governor and other state officers were elected. Governor Brown accepted the views of Senator Hodges, and refused to approve a bill that did not provide for an election of mayor in 1895. The change in the date of the election for mayor was made in accordance with the views of his excellency and so the charter was passed and became a law. Mayor Duncan went to the courts, insisting that he was entitled to a four-year term under the constitutional provision governing election of municipal officers by the people. The case went to the court of appeals, where it was decided adversely to Mr. Duncan's contention.

ELECTION IN OTHER CITIES.

The oddity about the date of the election for mayor in cities of the second class is that it differs from all other cities. The charter of cities of the first class provides that the election shall take place on the first Tuesday in November, in 1893, and every four years thereafter.

The charter of cities of the third class provides, (Sec. 5161 of the Kentucky statutes): "All officers elected by popular vote

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly filling to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. THE NEW YORK PAPERS CONTINUE TO TALK ABOUT THE PADUCAHAN.

The New York Dramatic News of April 27, contains a cartoon of Manager J. E. English, of The Kentucky, who is now there looking shows, and says:

It must be nice to be "it" - from the looks of James E. English as he appeared to our artist while strolling down Broadway, and smilingly thought of the handsome and attractive profits daily piling in while Murray and Mark are "Shooting the Chutes" and enjoying visions of the additional profits that will accrue when that swell new theater "The Kentucky" opens its doors down in Paducah. He is evidently "it" and The Kentucky "that's it."

Our artists secured Mr. English in his handsomest attitude. It is regretted the cartoon cannot be here reproduced, for Mr. English's friends would like to see him as he appears in New York.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly filling to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. THE NEW YORK PAPERS CONTINUE TO TALK ABOUT THE PADUCAHAN.

The New York Dramatic News of April 27, contains a cartoon of Manager J. E. English, of The Kentucky, who is now there looking shows, and says:

It must be nice to be "it" - from the looks of James E. English as he appeared to our artist while strolling down Broadway, and smilingly thought of the handsome and attractive profits daily piling in while Murray and Mark are "Shooting the Chutes" and enjoying visions of the additional profits that will accrue when that swell new theater "The Kentucky" opens its doors down in Paducah. He is evidently "it" and The Kentucky "that's it."

Our artists secured Mr. English in his handsomest attitude. It is regretted the cartoon cannot be here reproduced, for Mr. English's friends would like to see him as he appears in New York.

The City of Geloula was left off the docks at 5 p. m. yesterday. She leaves for Geloula tomorrow morning.

The Evansville Courier of yesterday says: John E. Massogale, president of the St. Louis and Tennessee river Transportation company and James H. Keger and Isaac Ray, other officers in the company, were in the city Wednesday in consultation with several river men.

The railroads did not say what the object of their visit here was but it is given out that they desire to charter a boat to take the place of the steamer Will J. Cummings, which was recently burned in the Tennessee river.

Captain Joe Fowler received a message from Sanders Fowler at Buffalo yesterday stating that the shaft had been shipped and would be here Monday. Workmen will begin immediately upon its arrival placing it in position on the Dick Fowler. Captain Joe expects to have her ready for the trade a week from next Monday.

Captain Ed Howard has had a live by time holding his floating property to the bank at his shipyard in Jeffersonville. The current on the Indiana side of the river is stronger and swifter than on the Kentucky side.

A special dispatch from Pittsburg says: Steamboat captains report that their boats had been fired on by persons at down-river points. They allege that the flood sufferers are not doing the shooting, but that it is done by hoodlums who live in the country adjacent to the river. The practice is a dangerous one, and the steamboatmen are talking of entering prosecution against the offenders.

There was no packet leaving here today for Evansville, as the Joe Fowler had to make the Monmouth City trip for the Old Fellows.

Business on the wharf was very good today.

The Victor was left off the wharf this afternoon.

The Joe Fowler arrived from Evansville at 1 o'clock this morning and departed for Monmouth City at 8 a. m. with several loads of Old Fellows from this city and neighboring towns. She was well crowded. There were also many followers being friends and relatives of the Old Fellows. This being a beautiful day they will doubtless enjoy the trip as well as the cere-monies of the order at Monmouth City.

The Tennessee arrived from Tennessee river at 1 o'clock this morning with a big trip. She leaves on return trip tomorrow at 5 p. m.

The City of Memphis leaves St. Louis tomorrow at 5 p. m. for Tennessee river.

The City of Clifton is the next boat due from Tennessee river for St. Louis. She will report here next Sunday.

The Sullivan exploded on the Mississippi April 28, 1901. There were 2,104 persons on board, most of them union prisoners returning home from Southern prisons. There were 1,820 lives lost, and was regarded as one of the saddest events of the war. Capt. Billy Cropper, on the Big Kanawha, was at one time clerk on the Sullivan.

STOMACHS THAT WON'T WORK

THAT RETAIN THE FOOD AND REFUSE TO DIGEST IT, MAKE THE HEAD HEAVY AND THE NERVES WEAK. NEED STUART'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS.

There is a cure for dyspepsia. Sufferers who have tried various nostrums will probably be skeptical but skepticism vanishes when Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are tried. Whether the trouble is dyspepsia of long standing, or merely a simple case of indigestion, relief is prompt and pronounced. The less the trouble the fewer tablets need be taken.

Heaviness after eating, sour stomach, as indicated by belching, fatigue with slight exertion, or with no exertion at all, disturbed sleep, nervousness, constipation, depression, "blues," these things can commonly be set down as symptoms of dyspepsia. And dyspepsia is merely indigestion in an aggravated form.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets produce strong nerves, restful, refreshing sleep, pure blood and good sound healthy flesh. They make the skin clear, the eyes bright, the mind cheerful.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a medicine and more than a medicine. They digest the food and make it easy of assimilation, and they relieve the inflamed, diseased condition of the membranes lining and the glands of the stomach and bowels. They help the digestive organs over the hard places, and put them into a healthy, active condition. They effect a quick and permanent cure. You don't have to continue taking them forever, still it is well to have a box handy and take one at the first return of the trouble.

Perfectly well people are made sick by eating too much, or unwholesome food, but eat if they take a tablet after eating. Treatment with Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets does not necessitate dieting or any change of habits. They digest the proper food and act upon the other kind in such a way as to make it pass off quickly and harmlessly. You may eat and drink what you like, when you like, and as much as you like if you take a tablet afterwards.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by all druggists at 50 cents for full size package.

Need to F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich., for little book on stomach diseases, mailed free.

SCHOOL NEWS.

PADUCAH WILL PROBABLY LEAD OTHER CITIES IN PERCENTAGE

Of Attendance—Supt. Hatfield's Idea of School Statistics is Becoming Quite Popular.

The last idea suggested by Superintendent Hatfield is becoming very popular. The idea is to call a meeting of the teachers shortly before the opening of school and drill them in the course of study. Heretofore they have met about one hour before the opening of school and have been drilled in their work. This was not enough time it seems and Superintendent Hatfield suggested the above solution. He wants the week need for the institute to be substituted for Christmas week and the teachers allowed their salaries for that week. The teachers have had one week's salary deducted from their month's salary for the Christmas holidays and all are in favor of substituting the institute week receiving full pay.

The percentage of enrollment in the public schools here last year at the end of the last term showed that 78 pupils out of every 100 who started in at the beginning were still attending. This year the list shows 85 out of every 100 which is a remarkable increase. Superintendent Hatfield stated that he thought Paducah would lead in this state for high percentage in enrollment.

Mrs. Ellen Wilcox, of the Jefferson school building, has resumed her duties after a short illness. Miss Orige by acted as substitute in her absence.

Miss Cynthia Ewell, of the Froster school, in Rowlandtown, is suffering from a bad case of poison oak.
